DESCRIPTION

The 2D & 3D floorplans are not to exact measurements but only to give an idea of the layout of the property.

The main door leads to the large kitchen (28.6m²) with an open fireplace and wood burning stove. Wooden flooring and a trap to enter the cellar.

Off the kitchen is a living room (12.8m²) and a room of 7.4m². The wall between these two rooms could be knocked down to create one big room.

WC (1.75m²)

The first floor has 3 bedrooms (19m², 14.4m² & 13.7m²) plus a small shower room (1.7m²) with sink and shower.

The attic is 45m² and would be possible to create further bedrooms in this space.

The house profits from mains and well water. A mix of double and single glazing. Septic tank.

The adjoining barn is over 26m in length and divided into 6 sections which would have been used as stables and for storage.

There is also a piggery (56m²) which would be ideal for renovation into a gite plus a well which could be used to serve the house.

There is another barn opposite the house (290m²) plus a hangar (169m²)

Lots of potential here for a small holding or to keep a few horses.

The property is located in a small hamlet close to the villages of Chateau Chervix, Coussac Bonneval and Meuzac and 40km south of Limoges. 19km to the popular town of St Yrieix la Perche.
