NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The house is situated in a quiet location on the hill just above the village yet only a few minutes walk from the main square, which has all shops amenities.

Entering through an elegant vestibule (5 m²) we come to large open plan kitchen (35m²). This is spacious and light and there is plenty of opportunity to create a beautiful new kitchen/dining room. There is also a working chimney suitable for a wood-burning stove.

To the left of the kitchen is a large reception room (23m²), which could also serve as a dining room or a first bedroom.

This floor also has WC (1m²) and a bathroom and utility room

There is also a second entrance to the property on the ground floor. In this corridor is housed the heat pump which was only installed a few months ago.

Stairs lead to a mezzanine style landing area, which could serve as an office or sitting room.

To the left there are two large bedrooms (26m² & 23 m²) with plenty of cupboard space and a fireplace. These both have lovely unrestricted south facing views over the Gers countryside.

This floor also has another bathroom (3 m²) and WC (2 m²).

There is also a large attic, which could be converted to extra living accommodation. This has been recently insulated giving the house extra energy efficient credential along with the heat pump.

Across the road is a large garage (30 m²) and a garden (642 m²) that gently slopes down the hill and is...
