NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This exceptional one-bedroom apartment stands out in a quaint condominium located just a 5-minute stroll from the renowned Promenade des Anglais in Nice in the district of Fabron.

Recently established, the condominium is the result of the thoughtful division of a charming traditional French stone building into six contemporary living units, each boasting its private outdoor spaces. The recent renovation, backed by a 10-year guarantee, ensures peace of mind for the new owners, enhancing the appeal of this remarkable property.

The apartment enjoys exceptional sun exposure throughout the year. The inviting entrance hall seamlessly connects to the bedroom through a contemporary glazed partition door. The spacious and luminous living room features a fully equipped open-plan kitchen and is connected to the generous shower room with a WC.

But the highlight of this apartment is undoubtedly the large, sun-bathed private terrace that is accessible directly from the main entrance of the apartment.

Operating expenses are kept to a minimum thanks to modest condominium fees and the flat's low energy consumption.

The apartment suits every purpose seamlessly, whether it be a year-round primary residence, a holiday retreat, or a secure investment given its prime location.

We anticipate a swift sale of the apartment. If you're interested, it's advisable to act promptly!
