To the front of the house is a large sunny terrace that looks across to the pool and surrounding countryside. On the end of the house is a covered terrace, ideal for more sheltered outside dining again with those wonderful views.

The 10 x 5m in-ground pool is of a very high quality with an air source heat pump and automatic chlorine dosing facility. The pool was situated to make the most of the splendid views whilst also offering a good level of privacy. There is a pretty stone pool house on one side with a covered terrace offering shade if needed at the poolside.

The garden has an orchard, original bread oven and space for growing as much vegetables as you like. Beyond this is a gated...
