DESCRIPTION

Nestled in the splendid region of Quercy Blanc, the commune of Lauzerte offers an enchanting setting with its picturesque valleys and hills. Founded in the 12th century by the Count of Toulouse, this medieval bastide still preserves all the richness of its historical and religious past.

Located on the "via Podiensis," one of the emblematic routes leading to Saint-Jacques-de-Compostelle, Lauzerte is imbued with the spirit of pilgrimage and spirituality. Visitors are invited to discover the numerous testimonies of this rich heritage, such as the paved central square, the stone houses with timbered facades, or the peaceful pilgrim's garden.

In addition to its historical heritage, Lauzerte also offers a peaceful and preserved living environment, where life is good at the quiet pace of the French countryside. The surrounding landscapes invite exploration and wonder, while the numerous hiking trails offer outdoor enthusiasts the opportunity to explore the surrounding nature.

Perched above the valleys and hills of Quercy Blanc, this impressive 280 m² stone house offers a perfect blend of rustic charm and modern comfort. Located just a 10-minute walk from local amenities, this property represents a rare opportunity to acquire a tastefully renovated stone house, offering a harmonious blend of traditional character and contemporary comfort.

Upon arrival, you will be charmed by the majestic appearance of the property, with its sturdy stone walls and generous 2498 m² plot offering breathtaking views of the surrounding countryside. The well-maintained grounds are adorned with lush gardens, mature trees, and tranquil corners where one...
