NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Formerly a hotel/auberge of the royal family of Orléans, this property has been transformed into a charming family home with abundant character, featuring four apartments utilized for seasonal rental. Situated in the heart of a village with nearby shops, it occupies a plot of 2026 m2 with a delightful enclosed garden and multiple outbuildings. Ideal for a seasonal rental business, it boasts a solid existing turnover with potential for additional apartment creation.

Accessed through a gate flanked by two large lava stone pillars, the property opens into a courtyard, providing entry to the main house, apartments, outbuildings, and garden.

The main house comprises:

Ground floor: Entrance leading to both the house and rental area. The main house features a hallway with original tiled flooring, access to a vaulted cellar, stairs to the first floor, a spacious kitchen/dining room, laundry room, living room with parquet flooring and fireplace, and a commercial premise with shop window and an independent entrance.

First floor: Landing with pellet stove, bathroom, corridor leading to four bedrooms, and attic space.

Second floor: Large convertible attic.

Additionally, a pub-style reception room for customers and converted outbuildings housing four ground floor apartments, each with independent entrances from the courtyard. These apartments range from 38m² to 45m² and include a kitchen with dining area, bathroom, bedroom, and technical room.

The property also features a large barn, garage, waterwell, pigeonier, covered terrace, vegetable garden, and greenhouse.

Recently renovated with double glazing and good insulation, the house is heated via pellet stoves, wood...
